Apollos University Announces Launch of New Certificate Programs in Addition to its Current Certificate Programs

GREAT FALLS, MT, UNITED STATES, July 13, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Apollos University is proud to announce the launch of new, accredited certificate programs. Dr. Robin Westerik, EVP and Provost of Apollos commented that "These new certificate programs, in combination with the degrees and certificates already offered at Apollos, provide much sought-after credentials to individuals seeking short term, career advancing knowledge and skills. The best thing is that these programs are stackable, and students can earn the certificates while completing their chosen degree or choose to enter the full degree program after completing the certificates. All classes in each certificate are credit bearing and can be transferred into the appropriate Apollos degree program. They are also can be submitted for possible transfer into another university. It's a win-win."

The new certificates include:
Certificate in IT Security
Certificate in Web and Mobile Development
Certificate in E-Commerce Development
