

Featured speakers for 2nd annual Wearable Injectors and Connected Devices Conference 2020

SMi Reports: Featured Speakers listed for SMi Group's 2nd annual Wearable Injectors and Connected Devices Conference taking place in October.

LONDON, KENSINGTON, UNITED KINGDOM, July 6, 2020

/EINPresswire.com/ -- The global wearable devices market size is expected to reach a value of $62.82 billion USD by 2025 with time dependent delivery, improved patient experience and adherence and large volume administration with minimal injection pain and being key factors driving the market.

The banner features a dark blue background with yellow and white text. At the top, it reads 'SMi Group Proudly Presents the 2nd Annual...'. Below this, the main title 'Wearable Injectors & Connected Devices' is written in large, bold yellow letters. Underneath the title, the dates '7th - 8th October 2020' and location 'London, UK' are displayed in white. The central graphic shows a hand holding a smartphone connected to a smartwatch, a computer monitor, and a doctor's head, all linked by dotted lines to a central cloud icon. At the bottom, registration information is provided: 'Register at: www.wearable-injectors.co.uk #SMiWearables'. The title 'Wearable Injectors and Connected Devices' is repeated in white text at the very bottom of the banner.

With that in mind, SMi is proud to present Europe's only Wearable Injectors Conference, taking place on the 7th-8th of October 2020, in London.
