

Grant Lawson Elected President of the Wyoming Trial Lawyers Association

Grant Lawson, trial lawyer and partner with Metier Law Firm, was recently elected as president of the Wyoming Trial Lawyers Association.

CASPER, WY, UNITED STATES, July 9, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Grant Lawson, trial lawyer and partner with Metier Law Firm, was recently elected as president of the Wyoming Trial Lawyers Association. This is Wyoming's largest and most active voluntary statewide legal organization. Their goal is to enhance consumer protection and preserve every citizen's right to trial by jury and access to a fair court system.

It is our job to protect our clients and their families when they find themselves depending on a jury of their peers to decide what the just action is in a specific situation.”

Lawson has been representing victims of personal injury cases for several years. He said that he is honored to have been elected as president of the Wyoming Trial Lawyers Association and hopes to positively impact the community around him with the influence this role grants to him.

“It is fundamentally important for every citizen to have equal access to and opportunities in the justice system,” he said. “Some cases require the attention of an attorney who is not only educated but also experienced in trial. It is our job to protect our clients and their families when they find themselves depending on a jury of their peers to decide what the just action is in a specific situation.”
