AUSTIN, TX, USA, July 7, 2020

/EINPresswire.com/ -- SpaDash,

Austin's leading haircut delivery

company, announced today extension of their appointment hours in order to accommodate more comfortable outdoor appointments. The company already offers the safest haircut available in the market with services performed at a customer's home or office, reducing exposure to others. SpaDash also offers an option to have haircuts performed outdoors and is a popular choice among customers. With the Austin summer heat, the company has now extended their operating hours to make more times available during the cooler parts of days.

Safest Way to Get a Haircut

Many customers choose our outdoor appointment option to add an extra sense of safety to their haircut appointments”

Cara Wilbur, Success Manager

Safety is a top concern for the Austin community and having options to maintain grooming safely is paramount to this decision. “Coronavirus and exposure to it comes through contact with those infected, much like Influenza. The best course of action is to avoid areas with prolonged exposure to others who may be carriers. Barbershops, hair salons and any other areas with shared surfaces and air in the same room fit that which should be avoided to be safer”, said Dr. Richard White, Ph.D. Cellular and Molecular Biology.

Not only have experts stated that one should avoid areas where many people have been congregating but have also stated that it appears that being outside can reduce risk of contraction of the disease.

SpaDash brings a full mobile salon to a customer's location and performs haircuts. This limits exposure to other customers and other hair stylists. All equipment is sanitized after appointments with the same solution used by hospital labs to disinfect and all stylists wear masks. Outdoor appointments are an option as well.

Cut Your Hair. Anytime. Anywhere.

"Because of the Texas heat, we have extended our hours to be 8AM to 11PM to allow for even more availability of appointments during the cooler parts of the day for the comfort of our providers and for our customers."
