WiseGuyReports.com adds "Global Sanitizer Market Research Report 2020 Analysis and Forecast 2025" reports to its database.

PUNE, MAHARASTRA, INDIA, July 8, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Sanitizer Market:

Executive Summary

The global demand for sanitizers is expected to witness strong growth over the forecast period 2020-2025, driven mostly by the Covid-19 pandemic of 2020. In the year 2019, the global market for sanitizers was valued at USD 1108.90 million with North America leading the regional market share.

The market for sanitizers is expected to grow on the back of increased government and population expenditure on public health and hygiene supported by ever-increasing population and urbanization in major economies around the world. Rapid adoption of better hygiene practices due to the coronavirus pandemic will fuel market growth.

Under the End user segment, Gel-based Sanitizers is expected to account for the largest market share as it is present in the market for long due to which it is more convenient and familiar for a consumer to use and apply and it is much easier to spread around the hand.
