Arura Capital Holdings to Partner with BeMotion Inc for Mobile Concierge app for Property Owners

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, July 9, 2020 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Arura Capital has a vision for homeownership, especially in the arena of condominiums: "People who love the condo lifestyle are interested in one significant difference: being a part of the community." With this in mind, Mr. Silverman, Director of Arura Capital, is taking an innovative and aggressive approach to mobile app technologies. "We are partnering with BeMotion Inc., to launch a mobile concierge app for our residents. It is the most efficient and elegant way for our community to connect with just about everything they need during their experience with Arura Developments. Pay bills, connect to retailers and restaurants, order services to be performed both inside and outside their units. There are simple things that we can connect our homeowners to make all the difference in terms of the extra level of service that our company represents." BeMotion Inc., a Toronto based company, is a pioneer in developing a platform called Mobile Commerce Network (MCN) technology. The innovation defined by MCN is to build mobile apps based upon the 'app within an app' model whereby potentially thousands of participating merchants, retailers and more can all manage their storefront and content controls, communicating directly with app users.

About (MCN Platform): <https://www.bemotioninc.com/>

The platform empowers businesses to build native apps for a variety of business functions. Such as M-commerce, digital advertising, event management, offers, payment gateway, and 25 other more features. The platform is super comprehensive. There are a lot of key ingredients. Providing the opportunity to create uniquely personal app experiences that drive brand engagement and conversion, plan the ongoing commitment and a lot more in less than ten days.
