

Virtual Conference on Paragraph IV on Virtual Trial - COVID-19 Edition by American Conference Institute on Aug. 20, 2020

Special Town Hall on Critical Virtual Litigation Strategies and Solutions to Coronavirus-related Disruptions for Hatch-Waxman Litigators.

NEW YORK, NY, USA, July 9, 2020

/EINPresswire.com/ -- The global pandemic has ushered in extraordinary roadblocks for the Hatch-Waxman community. Practitioners and litigants are battling with unforeseen hurdles as they navigate FDA approval schedules, filing deadlines, the 30-month stay, launch dates, and practicing law in the virtual courtroom.

In response, American Conference Institute is excited to introduce our latest virtual conference on August 20, 2020 - Paragraph IV on Virtual Trial: COVID-19 Edition.

This new virtual conference will guide you through the many procedural dilemmas that ANDA litigators are experiencing as a result of the novel coronavirus and provide solutions to coronavirus-related disruptions to Hatch-Waxman litigation. This one-of-a-kind forum will provide with you a “virtual cheat sheet” for the many procedural dilemmas that ANDA litigators are experiencing as a result of the novel coronavirus.
