Looking to inspire hope and evoke positivity during these challenging times, God's Gospel Creation spreads the good word through their new music video

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, US, July 23, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- God's Gospel Creation (GGC) releases the first music video for "God's Still Passing Out A Blessing" - praying to inspire hope and positivity during today's challenging times.

When I created the song I wanted to remind people that God will help us if we ask him to. He may allow us to go through trials but He brings us through them refined like gold in the fire”

Doug Baynes, Leader and Co-founder of God's Gospel Creation

Based in Atlanta, this gospel group recently released the music video for their first single, "God's Still Passing Out A Blessing". Doug Baynes, songwriter/lead singer of this new release, believes that God gave him this particular song to lift spirits and spread optimism during these times of hardship and distress. Founded in 2016, Doug started singing with his brother, James "Maestro" Walker and Michael Rounds, Sr. Their style is a mixture of gospel quartet and contemporary music, produced and written by Doug, and brought to fruition by the bandmembers.

Doug Baynes has an optimistic outlook on life and he strongly believes that we can all make it through the hardest times in our lives, if we just place our trust in God, as He is always watching over us. We just have to know that He is there. "When I created this song, I wanted to remind people that God will help us if we ask Him to. He allows us to go through trials, but He expects us to trust that He will bring us through them as refined like gold in the end. We have to understand that the blessing is activated by our faith in the Blesser", stated Doug Baynes.

The song features the story of a young man in need of help who seeks out God to guide him to the right path. The video starts out with a man in a state of hopelessness and frustration, unable to pay his mounting bills, and weighed down by the pressures of everyday life. Ending on a positive note, the young man returns to his church roots, and God meets him at his place of need, wherein he finds renewed hope and grace from God that restores his joy!

With everything that is going on in our world today, the pain, the suffering, the anxiety, the unnecessary loss of precious lives and general fear and unhappiness all around; we believe that people can find inner peace through a deep relationship with God, and that it will bring comfort to those that are suffering, help to ease troubled minds, and teach us to replace our worries with praise to Him, trusting Him for guidance and peace. God's Still Passing Out a Blessing is a reminder that God is in charge of everything, and His desire is to bless His children, even when we can't immediately see the blessing (walk by faith).
