

Ali Doukali Opens Up in Vulnerable New Single, Smooth

Smooth Available Now on All Platforms

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, July 31, 2020

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Pittsburgh-based artist, Ali Doukali, releases his newest single, "Smooth." Ali recorded the track at ID Labs, a premier recording studio that has worked with the likes of Wiz Khalifa, Mac Miller, and Atlantic Records to name a few.

"Smooth" uncovers the betrayal Ali experienced from some of his closest friends and allies. As too many already know, trust can take years to build but it only takes seconds for it to be broken. Ali delivers real, raw lyrics about the vicious hate he's received from those once closest to him.

Listeners can hear the hurt in Ali's rhymes, and hopefully, those who have gone through similar experiences can know they are not alone.

Ali makes a declaration with this song, saying that he will no longer be put down by the haters.

"I am a living legend. And I know most people may read this and immediately assume I am arrogant. But they will all see, my flow is unmatched, my bars are the highest standard around, and my energy is unmatched. Don't bet against me," says Ali.

"Smooth" is available now on all major platforms. Follow Ali on Instagram for updates on future releases or visit his website for more information.
