

Vietnam exports more than half a billion masks in COVID season

VIETNAM, July 24, 2020

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Vietnam exports more than half a billion masks in COVID season

557 million medical masks were exported by Vietnamese businesses in the first half of 2020.

According to the General Department of Customs, in June, there were 100 enterprises exporting medical masks of all kinds, with over 236 million units, an increase of 30% compared to May. For the first 6 months of this year, businesses exported more than 557 million units. The agency said it will publish its export figures once a month until the Government announces the end of the COVID epidemic in Vietnam.

We do not compromise on our product's quality. There was one buyer who requested us to remove the aseptic packaging to reduce the price, but we insisted on quality and so we turned away the client”

Henry Pham - CEO Dony Garment Company

USA, Germany, Singapore, Korea ... are the main export markets of this item of Vietnam.

Medical masks were removed from export brakes from the end of April in the direction of unlimited quantities, helping domestic businesses to promote exports of this item when Covid-19 was still complicated worldwide.

The average price of a Vietnamese export mask (disposable type) in April is about VND 3,500.

Facemask is one of the products that shift production, bringing a bright export point for Vietnam during the epidemic season. Many textile enterprises also quickly imported machinery and raw materials,
