PUNE, INDIA, INDIA, July 25, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Covid-19 Impact on Global Automatic Container Handling Market - 2020-2026

Summary:

Shipping containers revolutionized the movement of goods, driving change and efficiency throughout the global supply chain. The next revolution in container handling is the application of automation to operating the container terminal. At this time there are multiple automated container terminals in operation and more in development globally. The automation challenge has been in the part of the terminal where the containers are stacked, called the block. One end of the block services the ships being loaded and unloaded, and the other end services trucks and trains being loaded and unloaded.

The major 14 companies selected in the report occupy about 96.84% of the market share of the industry in 2019.

Since the COVID-19 virus outbreak in December 2019, the disease has spread to almost 100 countries around the globe with the World Health Organization declaring it a public health emergency. The global impacts of the coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19) are already starting to be felt, and will significantly affect the Automatic Container Handling market in 2020.

COVID-19 can affect the global economy in three main ways: by directly affecting production and demand, by creating supply chain and market disruption, and by its financial impact on firms and financial markets.

The outbreak of COVID-19 has brought effects on many aspects, like flight cancellations; travel bans and quarantines; restaurants closed; all indoor events restricted; over forty countries state of emergency declared; massive slowing of the supply chain; stock market volatility; falling business confidence, growing panic among the population, and uncertainty about future.
