Mason Greenstein, the founder and owner of Rent A Teenager, stated, "I'm very excited that Rent A Teenager is expanding to other communities. We are confident that there's a need for our service in other communities. These are challenging times. We are providing a turn-key approach that allows our licensees to be their own boss at a very reasonable price with little risk. We will provide the support and guidance to support our new team members. I'm looking forward to seeing Rent A Teenager in other communities"

About Rent A Teenager:

Founded in 2018, Rent A Teenager is the brainchild of Mason Greenstein, a rising Senior at Horace Greeley High School in Westchester County. Mason started Rent A Teenager when he was in the 10th grade. Rent a Teenager provides responsible teenagers to perform various jobs, including sports coaching, tutoring, babysitting, dog walking, spring cleaning, garage sale, photographers, yard work, birthday parties, music lessons, errands, photography & videography and more. Rent A Teenager offers a less expensive option than professional expert services.
