

Maritime Safety Briefings to Look Forward to at Defence Safety 2020

Smi Group announce the maritime safety briefings to be presented at this year's Defence Safety conference

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, July 27, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Defence Safety 2020 will provide a comprehensive overview of safety within the military, aiming to review the safe delivery of defence capabilities, and the parts that operational users, equipment, and service delivery organisations, as well as research and development play.

Once again supported by the UK MoD Defence Safety Authority, the event will feature a diverse, international speaker line-up of military and industry experts, who will explore the latest updates on maritime, air and land safety, including how organisations are reducing risk while maximising operational effectiveness.

This year's maritime safety briefings will be presented by senior personnel from The Royal Navy, US Navy, Royal Canadian Navy and more, to discuss maritime safety in depth, highlighting topics such as the importance of safety driven training, using data and analytics to identify safety trends, creating safety cultures, and more.

Interested parties can register for the Defence Safety conference at: <http://www.defencesafety.com/EINpr5>

Featured Maritime Safety Briefings for this year's conference include:

“Warfighting, Safely: The Right Culture to Maximise Operational Effectiveness”

The poster for the Defence Safety Conference 2020 features a central globe composed of various military and industrial images. The text on the poster includes the event title, dates, location, and supporting organizations. The SMI logo is in the top right corner, and the Defence Safety Authority logo is in the bottom right corner.
