95% Closure Hurricane Barrier Mesh Tarp

Protect your property from extreme winds and debris with our premium heavy-duty 20 mil-grade Hurricane Mesh Tarp. The sturdy 7.9 oz black mesh fabric is durable and functional allowing for visibility. This mesh fabric has 95 percent closure and is perforated allowing some air and water to pass through. Use this tarp as a roof top cover to protect your outdoor sheds, as a severe weather tarp, and for natural disaster relief efforts. Tough enough for hurricanes, it can be used as a superior wind protection screen, privacy fence, salvage cover tarp, or scaffolding cover. The 5' X 15' sale tarp usually ships in 1 to 3 business days.

 TARPS NOW® TOP QUALITY STOCK AND CUSTOM TARPS FOR OVER 30 YEARS

Tarps are often used to immediately cover damaged roofing areas, broken windows and doors, as well as used to move debris, provide for water capture, sunscreen and shade, debris lifting, protective coverings and many other uses that protect homes, businesses, livestock and pets following hurricanes and tropical storms. Noting the dramatic changes in weather closely linked to climate change, Tarps Now® has focused on providing protective tarps and coverings critical to hurricanes and tropical storms common to the Caribbean and the Eastern Seaboard.

To meet the unique needs of consumers and business in the wake of heavy storm damages, Tarps Now® also custom fabricates tarps prefabricated for mitigating damage to homes and other outdoor structures. The company also encourages the use of protective mesh tarp coverings that come in a wide range of different screen factors, weights, fabric grades and colors that are specifically engineered to deliver varying levels of UV protection and wind resistance, depending on the selected material and design, to better support evaporation.
