Presented by the Office of the Secretary of Defense, The Patriot Award recognizes supervisors and leaders nominated by a guardsman or reservist for the outstanding support that's provided directly to the nominator. The Patriot Award reflects the efforts made to care for citizen soldiers through a wide range of measures including flexible schedules, time off before and after deployments, caring for families, and granting any leaves of absence if needed.

"We are incredibly honored to receive the Patriot Award, and we are grateful for the everyday freedoms that we have as Americans. And we owe that to our military that selflessly serves us each day," said Barnabas Capital President Joe Powell. "It is also an honor for Barnabas to employ Jay McKinney as a vice president of sales. In addition to his work at Barnabas, Jay serves as a captain and engineer officer in the North Carolina Army National Guard, and we couldn't be more thankful for his service to our great country."

The ESGR was founded by the Department of Defense in 1972 to stimulate cooperation and understanding between the Reserve Component Service members and their civilian employers to develop healthy relationships for employees with military commitments. The organization's 3,600 volunteers operate across all 50 US states, the District of Columbia, Guam-CNMI (Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands), Puerto Rico, and the US Virgin Islands.
