“Like everyone, we’re fighting cabin fever these days. For now, we’ll give everyone a taste of the energy we feel when we’re onstage . . . virtually.”

Johnny Ryan

“Like everyone, we’re fighting cabin fever these days,” says Ryan. “But until we get back to touring, this online show is our best way to show gratitude for the support we’ve gotten and to give everyone a taste of the energy we feel when we’re onstage.”

Even before it dropped on July 17, CREOLE SKIES earned enthusiastic praise from multiple sources, including Ian Billen in The Latest Buzz (“... inspiring and reinvigorating by way of jazz, rock, ginchi funk, gospel and beautiful Southern soul”), Tom Haugen in Take Effect Reviews (“This exceptional endeavor travels well with Maceo Parker’s Soul Food and Joe Bonamassa’s Live At The Sydney Opera House.”), Vaughn Lowery in 360 Magazine (“... nourished by the elixir of Louisiana music. ... Serve me, please!”), Rob Dickens in Listening Through The Lens (“... an unabashed deep-rooted channel of funk and soul, guaranteed to put a smile on your face. TOTALLY recommended.”) and JD Nash in American Blues Scene (“... relaxed but irresistible, easing effortlessly from down-home blues to second-line strut to gospel transcendence and beyond”).

The band has also been featured in American Songwriter, Making A Scene, Digital Journal, American Blues Scene and other publications.

Produced by JoeBaby Michaels (Neville~Jacobs, Shaun Murphy) and Scott Sharrard (Gregg Allman, Levon Helm), CREOLE SKIES can be streamed or downloaded via all major platforms. Radio programmers can access the album via Airplay Direct.
