PUNE, MAHARASTRA, INDIA, July 31, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Social Trading Market:

Executive Summary

Social Trading is a branch of trading that allows investors to analyze the trading behavior of their peers and experts traders and help the investors follow a similar strategy by using copy trading or mirror trading. This method of trading does not impose in depth knowledge of the financial markets and is also mentioned to as low-cost, sophisticated alternative to traditional wealth managers. The growing trend of investing among the population drives the growth of the market. Further, lack of professional knowledge regarding investing and trading further augments the market growth. The rising awareness of linked Social Trading networks and growing disposable incomes across the globe fuels the market growth. Further, increasing ease of trading supports the market growth.
