

Earl S Seegars Speaks Out About the Workforce Investment Act Adult Program

The Law Enforcement and Security Private Training Academy offers training for unemployed and underemployed individuals entering the security industry.

GWINNETT COUNTY, GEORGIA, UNITED STATES, July 31, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Earl S Seegars is proud to represent the Law Enforcement and Security Private Training Academy and to provide the Workforce Investment Act Adult Program for unemployed and underemployed professionals entering the security industry.

Earl S Seegars is a former law enforcement officer and is the current president and chief instructor of the Law Enforcement and Security Private Training Academy. The Academy offers various state mandated and non state mandated courses for security officers and professionals.

The Academy works to provide quality training and help clients and graduates gain employment in the security and private investigations industry, as well as those who are looking to advance in their current careers.

According to Earl S Seegars, the average security officer in Georgia earns about $10.50 USD per hour. Chief Seegars notes that the officers he trains and helps procure employment for typically start their careers earning $13-15 USD per hour.

"Officers that were trained here maintain employment longer than the average officer in the state," says Earl S Seegars.

During the current times, the Academy is also following all safety regulations by practicing social distancing, issuing masks, and enforcing the use hand sanitizer while training. For those who are uncomfortable coming in or unable to, the Academy also has "The Home Study Program". This is for individuals who live out of state, live too far from the Academy, or concerned about training in a standard classroom setting. Study and training materials will be shipped to the homes of students who wish to participate in the long distant training programs.
