LONDON, KENSINGTON, UNITED KINGDOM, August 3, 2020

/EINPresswire.com/ -- I am pleased to inform you that Paul Roussel, Senior Director, Combination Products, Kiniksa Pharmaceuticals, has confirmed his position as speaker at the conference.

Paul's presentation is as follows:

Development of a Combination Product- A case study

- What is a Combination Product
- Considerations when developing a Combination Product
- Development of Combination Products from the patient/human factors perspective
- Advantages of working with outside development partners that offer platform systems
- Lessons learned in developing combination products

Paul Roussel is currently a Senior Director of Combination Products at Kiniksa Pharmaceuticals in the CMC Technical Operations Group with over 20 years of experience in the drug delivery and medical device space. He completed his B.S. in Plastics Engineering and M.S. in Manufacturing Engineering.

Paul has extensive experience in the design, development, manufacture, and lifecycle management of drug delivery combination products, as well as expertise in the design and development of injection molding systems and high-speed assembly automation.
