"This is our 15th annual claims career fair, and this year it is even more special in a world that has turned temporarily virtual," states Scott Kotroba, President of GreatInsuranceJobs.com. "This virtual event is also a benchmark to the stability of the insurance industry in turbulent times. We have seen some hiring freezes, but the industry and its jobs are moving forward for the most part."

Employers attending the claims virtual job fair include Liberty Mutual, Crawford, RYZE Claims Solutions, Custard Insurance Adjusters, Allied Solutions, ICW, Universal North America, E.A. Renfroe, Insurance Placement Solutions, Seibels Services Group, and many more.

"We found most of these claims jobs can be done remotely, which can significantly increase the talent pool for many companies," Kotroba said.

The virtual job fair will also include insurance career information. Visitors to the event can watch powerful webinars to help them in their job search. Topics include optimizing your insurance resume and how to make yourself stand out on LinkedIn during a job search.
