

Tarter Farm & Ranch is committed to helping farmers and those that rely on them

DUNNVILLE, KENTUCKY, UNITED STATES, August 10, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Tarter Farm & Ranch, the largest farm manufacturer in the United States, recently announced actions it has taken as an essential, needs-based retailer in response to the coronavirus (COVID-19) to better serve customer, communities and team members.

During the COVID-19 outbreak, Tarter is committed to staying open and providing customers products they rely on for livestock, gardening, animal confinement and equine. Currently, all Tarter Mfg operations remain open to support customers and their essential businesses.

Serving farmers and ranches for more than 75 years, Tarter has provided essential, needs-based products that rural customers depend on to help them take care of their families, ranches and animals at this critical time.

"We are in unprecedented times. Our customers and animals remain essential.", said Josh Tarter of Tarter Farm & Ranch. "We know that our customers count on us to help take care of their
