A proud response from her employees was immediate. In what they called a "Love Letter to Our Leader during Covid" they praised her skilled leadership and kindness during this unprecedented time. In part, they wrote: "Kathleen, you have been recognized for your achievements and leadership on numerous stages around the country. We, your employees, want to recognize you too—for always putting your people first—especially through these dark times. Through this letter, we hope we are surprising and delighting you as you do us every working day."

"We are humbled, grateful, and excited to receive this award, says Ms. Quinn Votaw, "and so proud to be a highly effective team, each of us living our core values and loving our work together. That's what creates success!"

Kathleen Quinn Votaw is known for her innovation in disrupting the staffing/recruiting industry. She launched TalenTrust in 2003, and it has served as a model for growth and exceptionalism over the past 17 years. She is an innovator and early adopter, testing new technologies and proving her practices internally before advising clients on recruitment, retention, and culture.
