

POPULAR SVOD NETWORK ZEUS GREENLIGHTS NEW ORIGINAL SERIES STARRING REALITY TV VET AND FAN FAVORITE KAMAL “CHANCE” GIVENS

ZEUS SUBSCRIBER BASE GROWS BY 41% IN LAST QUARTER

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, August 7, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- ZEUS, the new and popular SVOD network, expands its programming slate with series from reality TV vet Kamal “Chance” Givens set to premiere this fall. Joining an already star-studded lineup of scripted and unscripted programming, the network continues to push the envelope with original content from some of today’s most influential personalities.

Launched in July 2018, ZEUS is one of the only Black-owned SVOD platforms on the market and the first to be created for millennials by millennials. In addition to Chance, ZEUS has become a notable destination for some of the most popular celebrities to launch their next act including Ray J, Blac Chyna, Joseline Hernandez, Omarion, Draya. Princess Love, A1 & Lyrica Anderson and more.

“We’re excited to welcome Chance into the ZEUS family as he has been a beloved TV reality personality. Our subscribers have continued to resonate with our rapidly expanding stable of content as we continue to partner with new talent,” said Founder & CEO Lemuel Plummer. “Viewers who have been following their lives for a decade will see them in a more personal way than ever before.

ZEUS has experienced a substantial 41% increase in subscriber growth in the last quarter during the pandemic. Due in large part to the premiere of three provocative series: The Conversation, a news program Executive Produced by Ray J and Princess Love where camera crews capture explosive and unproduced confrontations by notable celebrity and influencer personalities, Black Chyna’s OnlyCam: LA, a behind-the-scenes look at some of the most popular subscription-based content creators as they create steamy content for cash, and Joseline’s Cabaret: Auditions, where Joseline gives opinionated commentary of video auditions by the ladies looking to participate in season two.

“I never could have imagined this ride when I first began my reality TV journey over a decade ago,” said Kamal “Chance” Givens. “I’m thrilled to partner with ZEUS to give my fans another shot at watching me find true love.”
