Katrina "Kat Tat" Jackson's custom patch for VENIM

Katrina Jackson is the first African American female to own her very own tattoo parlor in Beverly Hills. She learned the art of tattooing mostly on her own and started to grow in fame when she was one of the artists chosen to be on VH1's Black Ink Crew: Chicago in 2015. After leaving the show, she opened her own shop, Enigma , two years ago.

VENIM is a female-owned and operated luxury fashion label, focusing on the rebellion of the jean jacket. They believe the jean jacket has, and always will be, the universal symbol of democracy. VENIM has focused on elevating its design to make it a luxury item. VENIM also believes in the 'fewer, better things' doctrine, focusing on the quality and personality of an object to help it maintain its value and in turn, discourages wastefulness.
