Through our webinars, customised video messages and live virtual keynotes, we continue to support our client organizations through this Pandemic.”

Simerjeet Singh

The Coronavirus pandemic is reshaping the world in ways where quick adaptation and innovation are the key to continued and new success. This is especially true in the workplace as employers look for inspiration in normalising new office safety protocols or seek to discover efficient methods with which to address the delicate balance between teams working in-office and remotely from home. Additionally, employees are juggling coping with social distancing, safety precautions and, in some cases, the fallout and trauma of lost lives. Virtual Keynote Speaker

Simerjeet Singh has developed a new line of programs covering timely topics such as self-leadership in difficult times, inspirational leadership for a VUCA World, powerful reminders to stay motivated in the light of uncertainty, and methods in which to stay focused as the world recovers its equilibrium.

“It’s important to continue to provide learning and development opportunities to employees; more so, in a post covid-19 scenario.” said Singh. “In these trying times, keeping employees high on morale is undoubtedly the top priority for leaders across the world. Through virtual L&D initiatives, leaders can continue to keep the spirit of their employees high. Charles Darwin's note on the survival of those who could adapt to change faster really rings a bell. This is the time for leaders to step up and take charge of the well being of their employees."

Singh has over 13 years of experience in the motivational speaking space, having served more than 250 organizations worldwide and 80 different nationalities. He specializes in diverse life experiences and diverse audiences - from student groups to corporations - while stressing the importance of living a purpose-driven life. In 2019, Singh was recognized with the prestigious "Global Excellence Award" (GEA) in Motivational Speaking. An unconventional speaker, Singh helps leaders and organizations challenge their beliefs and thrive in a constantly changing era while encouraging others to make bold course corrections in both their personal and professional lives. His presentations cover his personal journey as well as touching on topics such as innovation, leadership, self-growth and youth empowerment.

A recent report from Data Connectors shows that businesses have been adapting by holding virtual conferences and events; the report also says that engagement level is as high as 86% compared to in-person conferences. Singh is employing groundbreaking tools, engaging webinars, customised and live keynotes via video conferencing in an effort to effectuate positive change for his clients. With an end-to-end setup and a fully-equipped studio with high end acoustics and lighting, Singh is able to offer organizations the same fully realized experience remotely as he would during a live event.
