("FINRA") approval as a licensed and regulated broker dealer. With a focus on the Aerospace, Defense & Government Industry ("ADG"), FON CF provides professional, strategic, and financial advisory services associated with Sell Side M&A Advisory, Buy Side M&A Support, Corporate Divestitures, Management, ESOP & Leveraged Buyouts, and Debt & Equity Recapitalizations. FON CF provides guidance for companies new to the capital markets, assists in finding additional capital sources, and facilitates capital structure improvement. The FON CF leadership team has experience with hundreds of prior ADG engagements, helping clients prepare for strategic initiatives such as: recapitalization, debt restructuring, business expansion, liquidity creation, sale of a business, ownership succession, and management transition.

"Becoming a registered broker dealer and FINRA member is an important milestone for us. FON CF is committed to maintaining the highest level of ethical standards while offering investment banking services to our customers", said Frank.

FON CF focuses on small and middle-market companies headquartered in the U.S., as well as larger companies wishing to acquire, merge or divest divisions. FON CF prefers transactions ranging from $20 million to $250 million, but will consider transactions outside of this range. The Company draws upon the platform of advisory services currently being provided by the broader FON Advisors organization to the ADG market including: Investment Banking; Valuation Advisory; Management Consulting; and Investing.

The Company plans to be industry agnostic in the long-term, leveraging team experience in retail, consumer products, manufacturing, healthcare, business and professional services, financial services, automotive, energy, real estate, and technology.

Mr. Frank commented, "I have been in the investment banking world for many years. I can say with certainty that FON CF brings an entirely new dimension to corporate advisory services in the ADG industry, creating additional value for clients through specific expertise provided by the FON Advisors platform."
