

Janus Worldwide Demonstrates World Class Online Learning Localization Processes and Rapid Delivery

By partnering with Janus Worldwide for localization of learning content, Developing Experts published over 350 science lessons and video content in weeks

UNITED KINGDOM, August 13, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Earlier this year Janus Worldwide, one of Europe's largest language service providers, engaged in a partnership with Developing Experts, a leading UK provider of interactive online science lessons for 4 to 14-year-old children. They collaborate with the Chinese Government's NEIS Future School Lab division to supply 1,500 schools with their Science curriculum software.

children. It demonstrates that Janus Worldwide has a world-class localization team with experts that really know how to keep the content informative yet engaging for a young audience. This was a critical factor in our objective to add value in the localization process," commented Steve Higgins, Global Sales Director, Janus Worldwide.

A complex task with the overall scope of 350 lessons, 600,000+ words, close to 30 hours of subtitled videos, and layout for supporting learning materials was broken down into discrete components, which were executed by our specialists: linguists, subject matter experts, editors, localization and layout engineers.

Janus Worldwide delivered a comprehensive service and received appreciative feedback from the customer: "We have been delighted by the translation work Janus completed for us. We needed a trusted partner to translate our first international project into Chinese and Janus delivered. Their services were efficient, professional, and proactive. We will definitely consider using Janus again for future projects."

The "Customer First" strategy promoted by Janus Worldwide aims to develop and maintain strong business relationships with customers, allowing the company to pursue long-lasting collaboration based on trust. We understand that not every organization is alike and nor are their translation and localization needs, and so we treat our customers individually, taking into account regulations, industry-specific terminology, and corporate standards.
