Learning Management System Market 2020

Summary: -

The analysts forecast the global learning management system market to grow at a CAGR of 27.17% during the period 2018-2022.

The global learning management systems market for the corporate sector is expected to witness a steady growth during the forecast period. The increased need for a centralized distribution system along with the requirement of a cost-effective solution to manage the company's operations and support various systems such as the enterprise resource planning (ERP), knowledge management system (KMS), and other support systems have fueled the market growth. Corporate LMS is used by companies to impart corporate training through a range of online training courses and to reduce the operating cost of training an employee. Using LMS, corporates can provide online courses to their employees and also monitor their progress remotely.
