

4 Wheel City Drop new Hip Hop Anti-Gun Anthem “Stupid With the Gun” Featuring Jadakiss

It's impossible to turn on the news and not see the effects of gun violence. HipHop duo 4 Wheel City, & Jadakiss address this in new song “Stupid With the Gun”.

BRONX, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, August 14, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Gun violence has devastated many cities and New York is no exception. Acclaimed Hip hop artist 4 Wheel City, victims of gun violence themselves understand this deeply. The remarkably skilled and passionate rap group (and community activists) are both wheelchair bound, focusing their skill and ability to communicate with youth to try to solve this and other problems. In exciting news 4 Wheel City recently announced the release of a new song, an anti gun violence anthem “Stupid With the Gun”. The new song features the legendary Jadakiss, of D-Block and the Lox. Pure street but with a powerful, positive message the new song is certainly timely and could very well save lives.

“Of course this is an issue that is as important to us as it gets,” commented Norris. “Gun violence changed all of our lives and our family’s lives forever. It’s great to see Jada kiss show support and jump on the track.”

Norris, whose rap name is “Tap Waterz” is joined in 4 Wheel City by a second gifted producer and lyricist Ricardo “Rickfire” Velasquez. As 4 Wheel City the duo have performed and made appearances at a very steady pace, being embraced by communities for their story, their message, and their remarkable skill. They’ve received numerous awards for their work, including
