WorkCompCentral announces their acclaimed Comp Laude® Awards event will proceed in honoring workers' compensation industry professionals with a virtual awards ceremony on Thursday, November 12.

The event was set to take place in Huntington Beach, CA at the Pasèa Hotel & Spa where the event was held last year. "With the pandemic continuing to pose safety concerns and travel-related issues, we felt it was best to take Comp Laude® to a virtual format this year," said Kristen Chavez, President & CEO.

Since its inception, the Comp Laude® Awards have become a coveted honor in the workers' compensation industry. Professionals are nominated annually by their peers in recognition of their significant industry contributions. They are nominated for being thought leaders and embodying the Comp Laude® mission: to change the narrative of the workers' compensation industry to a more positive dialogue. Comp Laude® also celebrates the cooperation of all industry stakeholders focused on placing the injured worker at the center of the conversation.

This year, the company received over 220 nominations from across the US in ten categories: Injured Worker, Applicant/Claimant Attorney, Defense Attorney, Medical Professional, Industry Leader, Employer, Service Provider/Vendor, Claims Professional, Work Comp Philanthropy, Agent/Broker and some write-in categories.
