WASHINGTON, DC, USA, August 14, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In the Washington, D.C. area COVID has made people get creative on how to have fun while staying safe. For many, hiking has become a new hobby, something they never thought about doing in their lives. For others Polo has taken a new meaning to define success or on how to spend a weekend with your family.

This takes us only 30 miles away from Washington, D.C., to Summerhill Polo, a premier polo destination in Maryland. Owned and operated by Charlie Muldoon, the youngest member of one of polo's most iconic families. Speaking to Charlie he explains Summerhill Polo as "We are not a club. Rather, a community of polo enthusiasts of all levels who are eager to share our passion for the sport. We adhere to this philosophy and create a warm and welcoming atmosphere for all of our guests".

your riding skill. The Polo Academy is directed by Charlie who previously was a top American player, the captain of the USA Polo Team and also coach of the team on multiple occasions and his good friend and wingman Dario Sotomayor, the only U.S Polo Association Certified Instructor in the area and former player of the Mexican National Polo Team.
