About the Artist

Holly is an incredibly gifted songwriter, capable of spanning a vast range of genres from disco to ballads. We are delighted to partner with such a talented artist.”

Johan Guillermo Estrella

A Brooklyn based singer/songwriter from a small town near the cape of Massachusetts, 22 year-old Holly Anne Frink draws inspiration from artists like Johnny Flynn, Sibylle Baier, and Kurt Vile. She started her music career at age five when she was in a production of Charles Dickens' A Christmas Carol. Since then, she's embraced her musicality with a vengeance, teaching herself how to play the guitar to accompany all the songs she'd managed to write in a cappella. Her writing style is lyrically focused and symbolic; she is a fan of hidden meaning and leaving something to the imagination.

“Holly is an incredibly gifted songwriter, capable of spanning a vast range of genres from disco to ballads,” says Johan Guillermo Estrella, founder of acpg. “We are delighted to partner with such a talented artist.”
