

Celebrity Hairstylists, Sean James, On How To Get Jamie Lee Curtis' "Top Pixie Haircuts of All Time" By Harpers Bazaar

"I like this for a sophisticated glamorous look"-Sean James

LOS ANGELES, CA, US, August 19, 2020 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- As summer hairstyles continue to reinvent themselves every year, the scorching heat in some cities has pushed many ladies to give in and make the most tempting yet timeless cut—a short pixie.

Harpers Bazaar Magazine recently named "The Top Pixie Haircuts of All Time" and ranking in at number 22 is none other than the scream queen herself, Jamie Lee Curtis. Her gray hair is classic and chic, and Jamie Lee Curtis kills the shade in her signature short pixie. Hairstylist to the stars and the man behind this look, Sean James, gives his inspiration behind this cut, and how he managed to execute this beautiful hairstyle.

Having been featured twice now in Harpers Bazaar Magazine, Sean states, "I'm so excited that one of my clients was featured on this list. I think almost legendary status?" He goes on to say, "This cut is with vertical section technique that I learned through Vidal Sassoon and inspired by Vidal's cut he did on Mia Farrow for "Rosemary's Baby".

Through the years in working with Jamie and recently having done her hair for her appearance on the Today Show and the Late Late Show With James Corden, Sean has done variations of this haircut for her own bone structure and adapts different lengths for different times and different movies. For example, "I made it red with a blonde stripe in the front, mirroring Lindsay Lohan's hair in the film, "Freaky Friday". Most recently, I did the blonde version for the movie "Knives Out" which was really exciting because I've always wanted to take Jamie's hair blonde. I used Redken shades EQ to tone it to get the perfect blonde, as it always gives the perfect gloss!"

Sean explains, "This cut was after I had colored Jamie's hair platinum for the movie "Knives Out", and took her hair back to silver using Redken shades EQ. I sprayed stylus "high altitude" at the roots and used my tiny half-inch round brush with boar bristles to round and add volume at the roots. I did this all around the head to give some volume, then pieced it out using Bed Head manipulator. I then topped it off with a chia seed dry shampoo spray from HASK to add texture. I blow-dried the fringe back off the face for something different and lastly used an FHIHEAT 2000 dryer."

It's no secret Jamie looked steller in this everlasting cut. "I like this look for a sophisticated glamorous look. It paired well with the gorgeous black diamond-encrusted dress she wore."
