My mission is dedicated to raising awareness about the epidemic of child sex trafficking here in the United States and expose this fastest growing criminal enterprise, putting predators behind bars.”

Craig "Sawman" Sawyer

Craig Sawyer, AKA "Sawman," grew up near Houston, TX and got his tactical start in the U.S. Marine Corps. He quickly transitioned to the U.S. Navy to pursue high-level

Special Operations as a U.S. Navy SEAL. As an Operator at SEAL Team One, Craig gained critical combat experience in Desert Shield and Desert Storm resulting in decoration for "Heroic Service". Sawyer launched Veterans For Child Rescue in April 2017, which is a task force of senior veterans of the counter-terrorist, intelligence, federal law enforcement, international counter-poaching and film & television communities who are dedicated to expose and help combat abusive child sex trafficking rings in order to create a brighter future for the children.

"Raj and I are proud to support causes that improve America. Our children are a priceless resource. Those who harm children must be apprehended and prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law", stated Klund.

"To be able to give back to this great cause is humbling and an honor" stated RajBhandary. "The depth of this problem must be addressed at all levels where it occurs - it's the right thing to do", he added.

Sawyer added, "My mission is dedicated to raising awareness about the epidemic of child sex trafficking here in the United States and expose this fastest growing criminal enterprise, putting predators behind bars", he continued, "I have dedicated my life in service of our nation and others... children deserve protection from this abhorrent problem, now."

"Verve's continued growth allows us to do more things for more people", concluded Klund, "and that's why we are here."
