NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE, USA, August 20, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- With the pandemic spread of COVID-19 and recent protests in scores of American cities, 7-time GRAMMY Award nominee, 5-time Emmy Award nominee, 30 year entertainment veteran, Paul Wright III and his Nashville-based record label United Alliance Music Group (UAMG) and its affiliates New Day/Sony Music/The Orchard have curated an innovative collaboration aimed with one purpose and goal...to share hope and encouragement to all through song with the forthcoming 11-track digital and physical album release 'The Hope Anthology Project', due out Friday, August 28.

A portion of the proceeds from this project will go to The GMA Foundation's Disaster Assistance Fund, which provides help to those in the Christian/Gospel music community, onstage and behind the scenes. The purpose of the fund is to offer relief to those whose health and basic necessities have been dramatically affected by COVID-19.

The Hope Anthology Project was kickstarted by composer, producer, songwriter, and GMA Dove Award and Stellar Gospel Music Award winner Paul Wright III who has worked on over 200 projects including serving as co-creator of the 20x platinum-selling WOW Gospel compilation and co-composer of the main title theme song of 90's hit sitcom Martin (1995-1997 season), to name a few.

Formerly of chart-topping duo AsOne (known as Music's First Female Interracial Duo), singer-songwriter Lisa Wright - who possess one of the most memorable and distinctive voices ever heard in Christian and Gospel music, she inspires us with "Hold On."

GRAMMY® nominee and GMA Dove Award winning singer, composer, producer and arranger Percy Bady completes the project with lead radio single, "Whole World."
