The 2020 Presidential Cookie Poll is Now Open at Three Brothers Bakery in Houston, Texas.

HOUSTON, TX, UNITED STATES, September 9, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- It is officially election season, and Three Brothers Bakery in Houston, TX, has brought back their Presidential Cookie Poll. They encourage their customers to come in or shop online and vote for their favorite presidential candidate with their purchase of cookies with edible scans of hand drawn caricatures of Biden, Trump and for the undecideds vote for the bakery favorite – their own Gingy.

Each week, via their social media channels, the bakery will post the results for their stores and national shipments. “We are having fun with the Presidential Cookie Poll for the third time, and it has always had great voter turnout,” laughed 5th generation baker, Bobby Jucker. “It is fun to see the trends in different parts of Houston, and this year we’re adding online and shipping, so we can watch the trends across the country,” explained Jucker.

People who want to participate in the poll can shop online or come to one of their three stores located at 4036 S. Braeswood Blvd, 77025; 12393 Kingsride Lane, 77024 or 4606 Washington Avenue, 77007.

About Three Brothers Bakery

The traditions of Three Brothers Bakery began in Chrzanow, Poland circa 1825, and were preserved despite the family's concentration camp imprisonment during the Holocaust. Their miraculous liberation and subsequent move to Houston, brought Eastern European scratch baking traditions to 4036 S. Braeswood Blvd, 12393 Kingsride Lane, and 4606 Washington Ave where the owners are now proud to call themselves "memory makers who happen to be bakers®." Perfecting the process for almost 200 years, each day the fifth generation scratch bakers produce a full line of breads, pastries, cookies, specialty dessert cakes and pies, as well as custom birthday, special occasion, wedding and groom's cakes.
