Faith leaders including Senior Pastor of the Ray of Hope Christian Church, Rev. Dr. Cynthia L. Hale and Director of the Religious Action Center of Reform Judaism, Rabbi Jonah Dov Pesner will join Stacey in sharing messages of hope and how their communities are getting out the vote.

A woman of faith, Stacey was taught to use her faith as a "shield to protect" by her parents, Rev. Robert Abrams and Rev. Carolyn Abrams. Stacey's parents will also join the call to share their experience as ministers and how to pass on lessons to the next generation.

People of faith will have unique opportunities to connect with All In: The Fight for Democracy including the National Call, digital conversations, and the All In for Voting impact campaign with civic engagement resources.

cinemas on September 9, 2020 and worldwide on Amazon Prime Video on September 18, 2020.

The film examines the often overlooked, yet insidious issue of voter suppression in the United States. It interweaves personal experiences with current activism and historical insight to expose a problem that has corrupted our democracy from the very beginning. With the perspective and expertise of Stacey

Abrams, the documentary offers an insider's look into laws and barriers to voting that most people don't even know are threats to their basic rights as citizens of the United States.

A diverse group of leaders from the interfaith community are expected to join the call with Stacey Abrams hosted by Values Partnerships.
