Encouraging people to vote in November has become a passionate undertaking for many in the Broadway and Hollywood performing arts community

NEW YORK, NY, USA, September 17, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Encouraging people to vote in November has become a passionate undertaking for many in the Broadway and Hollywood performing arts community and their extended community of performers, artists, writers, producers, and activists around the country. Their coalition, JUST ONE STEP FOR DEMOCRACY, has developed the website <https://justonestepfordemocracy.com> to showcase original videos and visuals from a wide array of artists expressing their feelings about our democratic ideals and telling voters why it is so crucial to take action, plan your vote, and make sure you do vote on or before November 3, 2020 in national, state and local elections.

JUST ONE STEP FOR DEMOCRACY is an official partner of Michelle Obama's When We All Vote campaign.

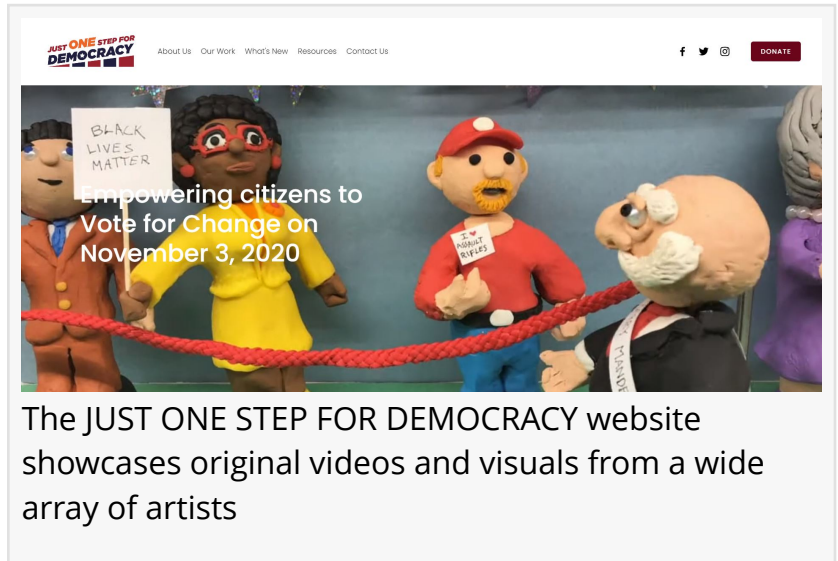

"This election is crucial to maintaining America's democratic institutions, which are being threatened to a degree we haven't experienced in a long, long time," said the coalition's Founder and Executive Producer, Arnetia Walker, a highly respected theater, TV and film actor. "We realized that, as a creative community, we could add our voices to the plan your vote movement by producing and distributing entertaining and inspiring messages created through spoken word, music, song, dance, and more."

We need people to get out and vote. We hope that our website's content will continue to inspire, inform, and motivate.”
