GWCCCE CEO Dr. Lydia Gonzalez- Dross, Congratulates all of the members of the United States Women Christian Chamber of Commerce chambers and affiliates. US Women Christian Chamber of Commerce is now taking applications for its first annual National Virtual Statesman and Diplomacy GWCCCE "Global Women of America "Ambassador Program. GWCCCE is a mosaic chamber and serves on behalf of conservative women, who desire a Kingdom seat in government, media, and education spheres.

The deadline is September 30, 2020, with a cost of $1250. GWCCCE members who are up to date on their annual dues of $150 will have a discounted price. The program is six months with an internship starting October 2020-ending April 2021. The program begins in January 2021 with a combination of virtual and face to face meetings. Leaders from all over the world will be imparting into these individuals. Our Youth Ambassador program will begin in Summer 2021, with an end trip in Washington or United Nations. Sponsorship is being accepted for our Youth Global Statesman Program!

About the Creator of GWCCCE: USHWCC has recently been awarded the Nelson Mandela International Peace Award, the only USA Business to receive such distinction and honor. Also, recipient of the International Human Rights Corona Warrior Global Award, World Civility Golden Rule Award, Women of Distinction Award by Tulsa World Business and Legal News. A humble recipient of more than 50 distinguishes presidential, congressional, governorship, and a dignitary humanitarian doctoral degree honorary award.

CEO, Ambassador Dr. Gonzalez, a long-time public servant in a government ministry, recognized merited leader, appointed as the United States Hispanic Prayer Director for The Prayer Council of United States, founded by Dr. Ted Ross. Humbled to serve as the AZ State Capitol Director, National Prayer Caucus Foundation, and AZ National Governors Team Prayer Leader. Gonzalez also served 10 years on the National Hispanic Leadership Conference National Board of Directors and Christian United for Israel in a leadership region capacity position. She is the founder of numerous non-profit organizations, birthing dreams by providing consultation services.

Dr. Gonzles is a graduate of higher education, master's level program School of Government in Public Safety, and School of Public Administration (Regent University, VA 2009). After 30 years of public servant leadership work, working full time, volunteering in public safety, chaplain, and raising a family, she obtained her undergraduate degree in less than two years from the School of Psychology at Ottawa University (2000, AZ). She was awarded 56 high honor credits in business, Home School Education for special needs, juvenile justice, substance abuse, and domestic violence.

Ambassador Gonzalez is recognized as a global merited public servant leader, an inspirational speaker, and shares her survivor testimony mostly in closed sessions.

To God be the Glory!
