

"The Love Hex" movie screenplay by Mike Meier receives "Gold" at the Depth of Field International Film Festival

In fact, the the screenplay "The Love Hex or Nicest Flings in Mexico" has received several accolades, and is forthcoming as a book.

MIAMI BEACH, FL, UNITED STATES, August 28, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- "The Love Hex or Nicest Flings in Mexico" by Mike Meier, a Rom-Com that takes place in the year 1929, won Gold at the Summer 2020 Depth Of Field International Film Festival. The story explores the many things in life we don't quite understand, such as love, enchantment, and magic spells.

Mike Meier explains where the idea for the story came from: "In this case, it goes back to the early 1990s when I was a student. I once listened to a program on National Public Radio (NPR) where a young lady discussed some of her Social Studies research for her Ph.D. thesis. She mentioned that in the earlier part of the century, American women traveled to the Mexico hot springs for health treatments. Sometimes illicit relationships with young Mexican gigolos ensued. I was immediately intrigued."

But it took COVID19 to give him a break from his usual job to finish the screenplay. "I had the draft in my drawer for almost 30 years. With little else to do during the shutdown, I finished the screenplay in June."

The screenplay has received several accolades:

- "The Love Hex or Nicest Flings in Mexico" won GOLD at the Summer 2020 Depth Of Field International Film Festival (DOFIFF).
- Finalist, "The Love Hex or Nicest Flings in Mexico" is a Finalist for the Hollywood Gold Awards.

Poster for the Screenplay "The Love Hex or Nicest Flings in Mexico"

- Finalist, "The Love Hex or Nicest Flings in Mexico" is a Finalist for New York Movie Awards.

- Official Selection, "The Love Hex or Nicest Flings in Mexico" was selected at the Houston Comedy Film Festival.

In brief, the storyline is: New York in 1929, shortly before the Great Depression. Rose is unhappily married to a mobster lawyer. She suffers from early-onset arthritis. Her doctor recommends a hot spring treatment. Her friend Alice, recently widowed and a mother of three, suffers chronic fatigue. Eventually, both travel to the hot springs in Mexico and hook up with two young gigolos. The days are jolly until on the Día de los Muertos, when Rose's jealous husband arrives out of the blue.

About the Author

Mike Meier grew up in Germany. He holds a master's degree in political science as well as a J.D. and LL.M. When not writing books and screenplays, he enjoys playing Latin and Flamenco guitar. He currently resides in the greater Washington, D.C area.

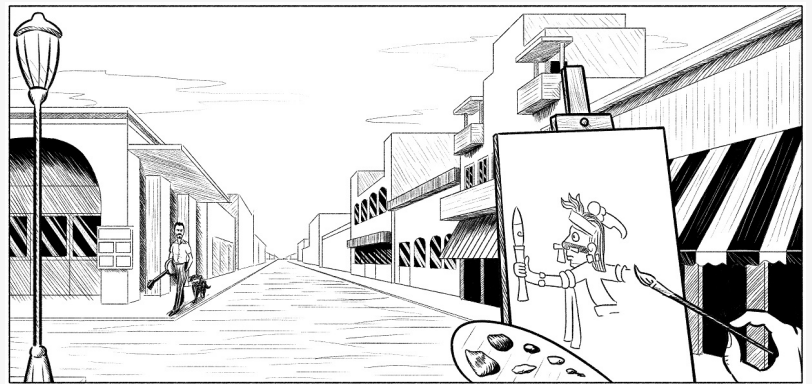

“

... The story explores the many things in life I have been wondering about, such as love, enchantment, and magic spells ...”

Mike Meier, author of "The Love Hex or Nicest Flings in Mexico"

Logo of the screenplay "The Love Hex or Nicest Flings in Mexico"

Storyboard image from The Love Hex or Nicest Flings in Mexico, Tehuacan Street

Mike Meier

The Love Hex or Nicest Flings in Mexico

+1 202-580-8758

email us here

Storyboard image from The Love Hex or Nicest Flings in Mexico, Ramiro meets Agustin Lara

Storyboard image from The Love Hex or Nicest Flings in Mexico, the Town Witch, Curandera

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/525059421>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2021 IPD Group, Inc. All Right Reserved.