

Pacific Service Credit Union Recognized for Outstanding Charity Efforts

San Francisco Business Times ranks Pacific Service Credit Union 83rd in Bay Area for corporate philanthropy

SAN FRANCISCO, CA, UNITED STATES, September 1, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Concord, CA August, 2020 - Pacific Service Credit Union, a full-service financial institution serving several counties throughout California, has been selected as the 83rd ranked corporate philanthropist for 2020 according to the annual Top 100 Bay Area Corporate Philanthropist list released today by the San Francisco Business Times. The publication showcases Bay Area companies that demonstrate exemplary charitable work in their respective communities. The full list was announced and celebrated on July 31, 2020 at a virtual Corporate Philanthropy Awards and Summit hosted by the San Francisco Business Times.

Pacific Service Credit Union provides charitable donations to local, non-profit organizations that support enriching and strengthening the lives of members in the communities they serve. The credit union is amongst a handful of bay area companies that donate more than 2% of their net earnings to charitable organizations. Throughout the year, Pacific Service Credit Union donates approximately $175,000 annually to various 501(c)(3) organizations concentrating on services for children, education, health and human services, and disaster relief.
