

New Transparent Mask Design Provides Superior Protection and Human Connection

ClearlyHuman Reveal mask allows you to communicate safely with emotion, subtlety, and nuance

PASADENA, CA, USA, September 2, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Today on Kickstarter, ClearlyHuman LLC has launched REVEAL, a see-through protective mask to protect against COVID-19. REVEAL highlights the facial gestures and micro-expressions that connect us—the joyful hello of a smile, the romance of blowing a kiss, and the subtle difference between seriousness and sarcasm.

REVEAL has four simple and elegant components:

- *Clear polycarbonate shell
- *Soft silicone gasket for a comfortable fit and seal
- *Adjustable, easily replaceable strap

Our ClearlyHuman Reveal mask design solves critical challenges around mask-wearing. We believe our mask will unlock the power of safe communication and restore some humanity during these crazy times"
