Frank Zhu

HappieWatch launched on Indiegogo on 27th August and has already raised over $75,000.

HappieWatch has stopped at nothing to create some of the most striking artwork ever seen on watches. Customers can select a watch to match their personality - designs include a blood-red octopus, a super-cute pug and a toothsome shark.

However, what's sure to grab the headlines is the Donald Trump and Joe Biden watches, just in time for the US election in November. Watch lovers can show their support for their favorite candidate wherever they go. And of course, they can wear them on their left wrist or their right!

Frank Zhu, Founder of HappieWatch said – 'HappieWatch is all about mixing cutting edge design with the lost art of watchmaking. With the FunnyFace range, we're taking it to the next level. It's almost impossible to put one on and not start a conversation. As for our Trump and Biden watches? They're huge fun. I wonder which one will sell more'

HappieWatch fans can save 45% and get their hands on a HappieWatch at the exclusive 'early bird' price of USD 189 by visiting the HappieWatch Indiegogo page here
