Our luxury brands were personally selected specifically for Southeast Asia and the region, and feature bottles that can be best described as works of art, with exceptional taste and each with their own unique brand story. The brands are ideal for the gift-giving culture in Asia. Tequila, probably Mexico's most recognized beverage worldwide, is a distilled liquor from Jalisco, made from the blue agave plant, mainly in the surrounding areas of the beautiful town of Tequila, 40 miles Northwest of Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico.

The distilleries and brand owners that work with East West are family, friends, and long-time business associates who share a love for Mexico and a passion for premium spirits.
