

Chaparral and Robalo Boats Virtually Hosts Annual Dealer Meeting

Boating manufacturer recognizes its top sales leaders at its annual event

NASHVILLE, GEORGIA, UNITED STATES, September 3, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Chaparral and Robalo Boats, world-class recreational boat manufacturers, hosted their annual dealer conference virtually across three days, from Tuesday, Aug. 25 through Thursday, Aug. 27. At the conference, Chaparral and Robalo executives and directors covered a variety of topics, including new product development, marketing updates, parts updates, state of the company and state of the industry. The conference also highlighted the dedication of the companies' outstanding dealer network around the world who worked tirelessly to sell boats during unprecedented times.

“The Chaparral and Robalo teams are excited about all of the hard work that our dealers displayed this past year,” said Chaparral Founder Buck Pegg. “As wonderful as the virtual meeting was, there is no substitute for seeing our dealers in person and interacting with them face to face. While we weren’t able to meet in person, it was still a unique opportunity to get together virtually and honor our exceptional dealers from around the world. They truly make our company what it is today.”

The conference opened with remarks from Chaparral CEO Rick Hubbell and Pegg. The event received great attendance by its dealers and reached additional dealership employees, including sales and service professionals.

“Since the MRAA puts such an emphasis on online education and Chaparral and Robalo always puts on a wonderful dealer meeting, I was hoping for the best, and they did not disappoint," said MRAA Chair Joe Hoffmaster. "Truly a world-class virtual dealer meeting from beginning to the end that allowed me to develop my business plan for the coming year. Bravo!"
