-- The TV Anime series "Ikebukuro West Gate Park" is set to get an opening theme, "Needle Knot" by THE PINBALLS and an ending theme, "after song" by INNOSENT in FORMAL "

The anime is an adaptation of Ira Ishida's popular novel series which is set in Tokyo's Ikebukuro ward. The story centers on Makoto, known as the "Troubleshooter of Ikebukuro." He helps everyone from his friends to local street toughs in solving various incidents. The novel series has gained popularity with many adaptations, such as the TV drama starring Tomoya Nagase of TOKIO by the same name "Ikebukuro West Gate Park (I.W.G.P.)", directed by Yukihiro Tsutsumi, screenplay by Kankuro Kudo in the past.

The OP theme song, "Needle Knot" put people inside the world of IWGP from the beginning, with THE PINBALLS' unique and unnamable rock sounds - garage rock or rock 'n' roll. The band suddenly appeared with the concept:

THE PINBALLS

INNOSSENT in FORMAL

“A story about an adventure of the band, who are the main characters of an animated movie. They jumped out of the screen of an old movie theater on the eve of closing. They used to play at circus and once dominated the world... ”

Being called as “Japanese-made Gorillaz”, they became a hot topic. The strong “street” sounds with a blend of hip-hop, rock and electronic have stolen the audiences’ hearts and won’t give them back
