

Producer Lindsay Guion Extends His Academic Scholarship Campaign Deadline

CHAIRMAN AND CEO of GUION PARTNERS, Lindsay Guion, is proud and grateful to support individuals pursuing a post-secondary education.

NEW YORK, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, September 4, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In light of recent events, Lindsay would also like to extend the scholarship deadline to Sept 30th. Named after the legendary blues singer and Empress of Blues, Bessie Smith, the initiative was put in place to help provide financial aid to students currently struggling to make tuition payments. As an entertainment advisor to the Bessie Smith Estate, Lindsay can think of no better way to honor her legacy than by helping to support musically gifted individuals.

With $5,000 in scholarship funds to be claimed, applicants must submit a 500-word essay that speaks to the theme "Music as Therapy or Voice as an Expressive Musical Instrument." Students must also submit an online application form via the official website.

Additionally, applicants must be currently enrolled at an accredited university or college in North America and provide proof of acceptance.

Lindsay encourages all those who meet the requirements to apply. For more information on the Bessie Smith Scholarship please visit the following site.
