

CRITICALLY ACCLAIMED RISK GOVERNANCE BOOKS TO BE TRANSLATED INTO INDONESIAN

The Board Member's Guide to Risk and Governance Reimagined to Reach Important New Audience

NORTHFIELD, MN, UNITED STATES, September 9, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- (b)right governance publications is pleased to announce an agreement for the Indonesian translation and distribution of both The Board Member's Guide to Risk and Governance Reimagined: Organizational Design, Risk, and Value Creation. The agreement was signed last month and will bring the leading insights from these highly praised guides for boards, senior executives, and aspiring MBA students to a key global audience.

David R. Koenig

"The Indonesian market for corporate governance has been growing rapidly with a commitment to steadily improving trends in board governance practices," said David R. Koenig, author of The Board Members' Guide to Risk and Governance Reimagined. "I am very pleased that this guide will contribute to that ongoing effort and to have such a strong and committed partner in Indonesia to bring this project forward."

Translation, publication, and distribution of the Indonesian-language version of both books is being managed by the Center for Risk Management and Sustainability (CRMS) - a globally recognized organization that is leading the Governance, Risk Management, and Compliance (GRC) professional capacity building in Indonesia. Established in 2010, CRMS has collaborated with countless Indonesian organizations in training more than 5,000 Indonesian professionals, providing them with an opportunity to sharpen their professional capabilities. In 2014 and 2016, CRMS was recognized with the "Best Risk Management Service Provider" award in IRM's Global Risk Awards in London, UK.

Antonius Alijoyo, the founder of CRMS said, "it is the right time to have the translation of the book for Indonesian professionals as it provide much insights as well as foresights to embrace better practices of governance and risk management at board level."

The Indonesian-language version of The Board Member's Guide to Risk and Governance Reimagined will be available by December 2020. Updates can be received by contacting CRMS at +62-22-87301035 or 62-812-22200775 or email at secretariat@crmsindonesia.org.
