Corporate Vision launched the original Media Innovator program to recognize those that took the ethos to adapt, grow, and evolve to the industry's needs in the pursuit of bettering it and challenging others to follow their lead. Discussing their winners' success, Awards Coordinator Jazmin Collins said: "I offer sincere congratulations to those recognized in this year's program, and I hope you have a wonderful rest of the year ahead." According to Corporate Vision, "The greater media landscape is an ever-evolving one, adapting to the changing needs and wants of the consumers it serves. Above all else, innovation and creativity are the keys to enduring success in such an environment, regardless of where your company specializes in the industry. From top-tier marketing firms to those looking to reinvent digital media, it pays to differentiate yourself from what is, by all regards, an incredibly competitive field."

Collins added, "This is why Corporate Vision Magazine aims to seek out the brightest sparks who influence, engage, and endeavor to provide the best of services, from the app creatives and legal pioneers and marketing masters to the talents of technicians who can differentiate in a competitive and ever-evolving industry. As with all Corporate Vision Awards, the 2020 Media Innovator Awards are based on merit, not the number of votes received. The process works to
