AARDY CEO Jonathan Breeze commented: ‘Of all insurance types, we believe that Medicare is one of the most complex, least understood. Thereafter, we provide access to a CMS-approved Medicare comparison system, so that plans and coverage can be compared, simply.

Arguably, more importantly, we introduce the option to talk with a Medicare Agent – a specialist who will take the time to understand and recommend the most appropriate Medicare policy for each of our customers. We believe that technology can be used to provide guidance and support. However, this technology must be supported by world-class customer service.'

Each year, between October 15 and December 7, Medicare provides an opportunity to sign up or change plans during the Annual Enrollment Period (AEP). Other names are Medicare Fall Open Enrollment and the Annual Election Period.
